MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS OF RED BANDITS IN VARIOUS QUARTERS OF CHINA

Foreign Office Document

1935 5362 (Omitted) Dispatched Jan. 26, Peiping
Received Night March 26, Home-Office

Foreign Minister HIROTA.

Secretary MUTO

No. 141

As the first step in its anti-Communist activities, the Hopai-Charhar Political Council, put out two kinds of propaganda leaflets under the titles of "President Sung Announces to the Populace" and "Hopai Government Announces to the Populace" and distributed in various districts on March 8. The gist of the propaganda leaflets is as follows:

The Red bandits have deceived the people with honeyed words, committing murder and arson frequently and at will. They have brought China to its present miserable state, exploiting the people with the aid of foreigners. Therefore, we should make a united effort to overthrow them.

Further, on the 25th, the Political Council issued instructions to the Chiefs of the prefectures under its jurisdiction to the following effect:

The Red bandits have deceived the people with honeyed words, committing murder and arson frequently and at will.
They have brought China to its present miserable state, exploiting the people with the aid of foreigners. Therefore, we should make a united effort to overthrow them.

Further, on the 25th, the Political Council issued instructions to the Chiefs of the prefectures under its jurisdiction to the following effect:

The activities of the Red bandits in Shensi have become more and more rampant and it is not unlikely that these bandits may infiltrate into the Provinces of Ipeki and Chahar to stir up the people. Therefore, we have to admonish the people in general not to be misled by any of their enticements and point out the crimes of the Red bandits from time to time in an effort to make the people aware of their evil.

This has already been transmitted to the Ambassador to China, all the Consul-generals in China, and KALGAN, CHENG*CHOW and Manchuria. The Ambassador will please transmit this to Shanghai.
